

The British Dam Society at the Institution of Civil Engineers

2011 STUDENT PAPER COMPETITION

First prize: An expenses paid trip to attend the 2012 British Dam Society conference, in Leeds (12th to 15th Sept)

Second Prize: £200 / Third Prize: £100

BDS sponsor students from universities in full-time education, YINI students and first year graduates to attend dams-related courses/seminars.

In the past, this has included the BDS Conference, the Barcelona ICOLD Conference and the 10-day training course at Ridracoli, Italy entitled "When man meets nature".

To enter the 2011 BDS Student Competition you should send the following to Tim Fuller, the Secretary of BDS, by email (Tim.Fuller@ice.org.uk) by 30th Nov 2011:

- 1. An essay of between 1000 and 1500 words on the topic "The Benefits of Dams".
- 2. A one-page application outlining what you would gain from the experience of attending the BDS 2012 Conference, why you wish to take part and why you should be selected.

Sponsored by the British Dam Society

www.britishdams.org

The organisers reserve the right to substitute another prize of equivalent value if the requested event is, for any reason, impractical